Once there lived a couple who spent a idle time in of the alk. One day, husband said, "I have always wanted to keep cows. If, chance, by Ι get extra some money from somewhere, am going to buy a few cows."

"But that means a lot of work. You have to feed the cows, walk them. bathe them, milk them - cows need a lot of looking after. One cow would be enough. There's no need to buy more cows," said the wife.

"But think of all the milk we'll get if we buy more," said the husband.

"That's true." The wife agreed. "There will be so much milk that we can even have plenty of dahi and butter and ghee. Wouldn't it be lovely ! How lucky that I have all these earthen pots kept aside. I'll use one of the pots for
